

Ethics in the Credit Department

Being a credit manager can test your patience. The stresses of the position fall on your desk from several directions. It's can be your customers, coworkers, or superiors. You're forced to make hundreds of decisions each week. Those decisions can cause internal conflicts on a moral or ethical level, especially where money is involved. Karen Hart will discuss the situations that often occur and give you an attorney's perspective.

May 11, 2022
1:00 pm - 3:00 pm
Member price $59
Non-Member $79

REGISTER

Karen Hart is a business attorney with over 17 years of experience litigating commercial disputes.

BELLNUNNALLY
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS