CREDIT CARD SURCHARGING SEMINAR

Michael Williams, Vice President Sales and Strategic Partnerships at United TranzActions, will discuss the tools available to make taking payments safer and more efficient.

A credit card “surcharge” is an additional fee that a merchant may pass on to a customer when a credit card is used for payment. In the past, the major credit card companies prohibited surcharging. Now, it’s permitted. Learn how your company can implement surcharging while following the government requirements.

Registration is complimentary to NACM Southwest Members
