CREDIT CARD
AND CHECK
FRAUD SEMINAR

Michael Williams, Vice President Sales and Strategic Partnerships at United TranzActions, will discuss the tools available to make taking payments safer and more efficient.

Join us as Michael discusses the rising frequency of credit card, ACH, and check fraud. Learn how to spot the red flags and establish a check and credit card acceptance policy to help your company. Bring your team to the webinar, so that everyone knows how to identify potential threats.

Registration is complimentary to NACM Southwest Members

The frequency of fraud attempts are on the rise. As the economy teeters on the verge of a recession, scammers are looking for any opportunity to take advantage of weaknesses in the credit industry. Are you next on their list?
